In consideration of my application to attend Bring Back the Music (BBTM), I do hereby for myself, my executors, administrators, and assignees release and discharge BBTM, The Arts Council of Oklahoma City, Millwood Public Schools and all other sponsors and officials for all claims of damages, demands, actions whatsoever in any manner arising or growing out of my participation in BBTM. BBTM, its officers, directors, employees and volunteers shall not be responsible for student's personal possessions lost or damaged by theft, malicious mischief or otherwise. BBTM specifically advises against bringing any valuables to the BBTM classes.

It is expressly understood and agreed that, if a student is found possessing or using illegal drugs or alcoholic beverages, or if a student leaves the workshop without the express permission of the BBTM Director, or if the student damages or defaces any equipment, instruments and/or property owned by or otherwise in use by BBTM, or if the student's conduct or influence is contrary to the best interest of the program, then the student maybe dismissed at the sole discretion of the BBTM Director with no refund or reduction of fee. Student and/or parent/guardian may be held liable for damages to equipment, instruments and/or property owned by or otherwise in use by BBTM stemming from willful destruction and/or malicious behavior. The student agrees not to smoke or possess cigarettes while BBTM is in session. No Weapons Are Allowed.

I understand that part of the BBTM program may include a performance or performances before a paying public and I hereby give permission for my son/daughter to take part in such performances with neither extra fee nor compensation. As further consideration of this agreement, I hereby grant BBTM and its employees and assigns the right to use any photograph, film, video tape or other likenesses in which my son/daughter appears for publication, advertising and exhibition.
